

1) Lon Lacey, Jr. was asked to discuss the Color Guard's past and upcoming events. Lon passed out a schedule of the guard's 2009 events and noted that their services have been in increasing demand by the community for various events and commemorations. He emphasized that we need to back up our commitments to these organizations and urged CMM members to actively support these activities with their attendance and participation.

2) Lance M. Lyngar was asked to speak on History Day. He announced that 14 medals were handed out by our Chapter and the Fairfax Resolve Chapter. He said that there were approximately 500 in attendance and that 199 students participated in the program.

3) Dominic Lay's scrapbook was brought in and available for members to view. It was discussed that all the old scrapbooks be brought in for the next meeting in commemoration of the Chapter's 35th anniversary.

4) Three members attended the 250th James Madison Anniversary at Montpelier.

President Francis Lay, Len Cowherd and Jerry Hubbard at Montpelier.

5) Mike Lyman discussed the grave marking on March 14, 2009 in Hampton, VA.
