

Gen. Washington in Trenton. John Paul Jones later led the only American intervention on British soil when his company raided the estate of Lord Selkirk, taking 190 lbs of silver, which he later returned. The Corp is celebrating its 234th anniversary as the longest tenured arm of the United States Military.

Bob Bowen describing his Continental Marine uniform.

Presentation of Awards

Bob Bowen presented a Flag award to Pres. Francis Lay, who accepted on behalf of the Culpeper Minute Men and Patriotic Service Certificates to John Sinks and Jim Bayne for their participation in the 225th American Anniversary events.

John Sinks, Francis Lay, Jim Bayne, Bob Bowen

Closing Remarks

Pres. Francis Lay thanked everyone for coming and looked forward to seeing everyone at the Multi-Chapter meeting in April at Graves Mountain Lodge. The Color Guard led by Lon Lacey Jr. retired the