

Gar Schulin introduced Col. Edward Dandar, Jr., who talked about "Elk Run in the Colonial Period."
Note: Revolutionary War graves are believed to be on site.

50/50 was won by Larry Alexander.

Closing remarks and adjournment by President Lay.

SAR Recessional by Lance Lyngar.

Colors were retired.

Benediction by Chaplain Jerry Hubbard.

1445 - The grave of Major Claude J. Guinn was marked. Gerry Schuck provided Taps.

-----Virginia Bulletin-----

Gentlemen:

The third issue of the 2009 Virginia Bulletin is now on the website. Click here and on pages 1-12 to view and download. <http://www.sar.org/vassar/bulletin.htm> Please notify your members of the newsletter's availability.

Semper Fi - Bob Bowen - Editor

-----VA Hospital Donations-----

Gar Schulin will be accepting donations for delivery to the VA hospital in Richmond. A special effort is being done to collect as much as possible. Gar has already made one delivery to the hospital. A special thanks to Gar for his work and dedication to this project. If you have questions, contact Gar. His information is listed in the CMM officers section.

Warrenton/Fauquier County Heritage Day Pictured are Jake Lay, Gar Schulin, Alan Lacey, Gil Hocker, Lon Lacey, III, Paul Bess, Francis Lay, Larry Alexander. Hiding (or being bashful) behind Larry Alexander is CMM Color Guard Commander Lon Lacey, Jr.