FROM THE PRESIDENT'S CORNER

What a beautiful day to Celebrate Constitution Day at James Madison's home in Montpelier, Orange County, Virginia, on September 17, 2007 with about two hundred persons in attendance. Along with about 50 grade school students singing about 10 songs and historically appropriate phrases of constitutionally times representing times and personages such as George Washington, Ben Franklin, Thomas Jefferson, John Adams all dressed in period clothing. The group as led by the elementary music teacher. Excellent to say the least.

The Prince William III Fife and Drum Corps, gave a beautiful rendition of the American presentation of various Colonial Revolution and U. S. songs, including the Pledge of Allegiance and the Star Spangled Banner, with our VASSAR President, Joseph Dooley, holding the American Betsey Ross Flag.

Ms. Beth Heath, Educational Director for the Montpelier Foundation, introduced the Program by giving an inspirational
